

Annual meeting of NBFCs in Kerala

Kerala Non-Banking Finance Companies (KNBFC), the welfare association of non-banking finance companies with their registered offices in Kerala, held this year's annual meet in Kochi on Thursday. K M Mani, state minister for finance, inaugurated the meet, which mainly focused on various risks as well as governance challenges that are faced by the NBFCs in the current scenario. It also discussed how a proactive approach towards compliance can help minimize these risks.
